Contents

WITHIN the covers of this book we attempt to preserve the memory of our associates and the fine things we have done in connection with our friends. It is only proper that we turn back in after years to a permanent record of one of the happiest periods of our lives.

In order that we may all more easily find within the book what will most interest us, we have divided the material into the following sections:

Foreword

NEXT year the pupils of the Helena High School will enter a new building, a building dedicated to the institution of finer learning. The old high school in which so many of us have been taught and have enjoyed ourselves has developed within itself many fine traditions. It is our earnest hope that these traditions, these activities which are the Helena High School, shall carry on into newer and finer buildings under new leadership. The editing of this book is one of those traditions. If we succeed to impress the importance of these traditions on the classes of following years, we shall feel that ours is success.

We let this be the FOREWORD to our work.

Dedication

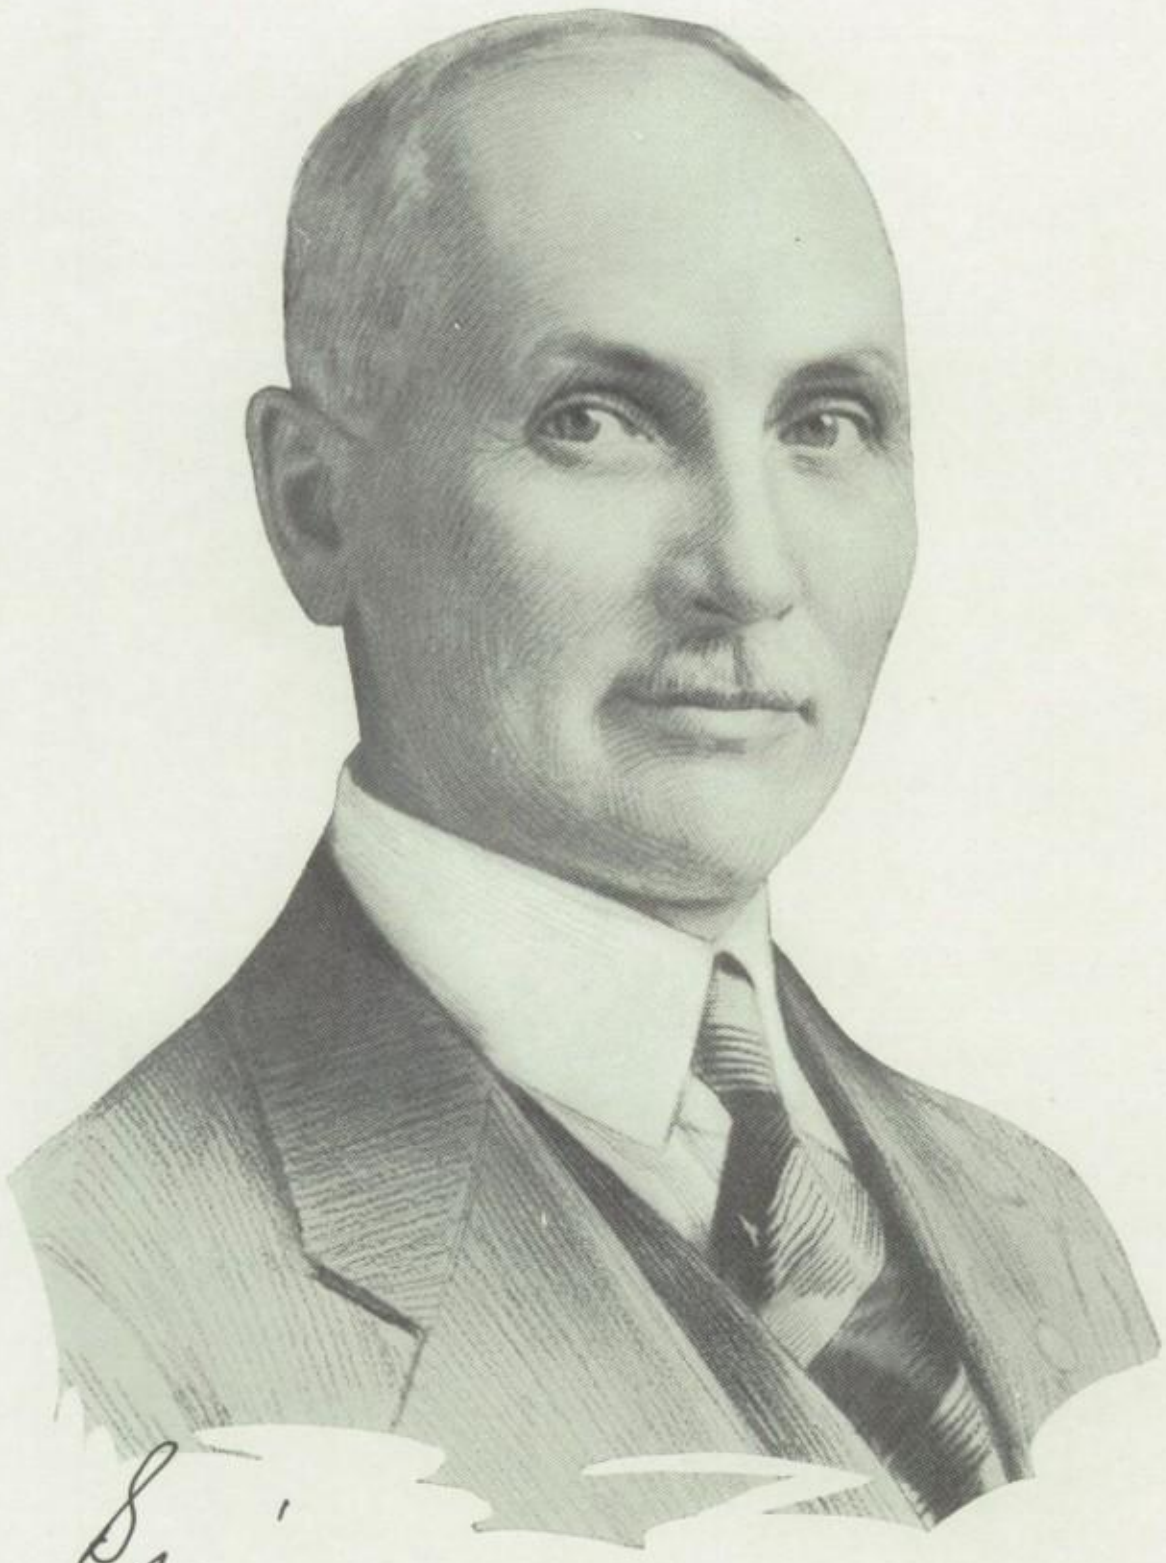
AS WE, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and thirty-five, come to the end of our high school education in the Helena High School, we involuntarily turn back to view what has been to us one of the greatest experiences of life. About us are many we shall probably never see again. Surrounding us are those physical conditions which we may not again encounter.

This year we graduate under peculiar circumstances. To any class it is a strange experience to leave the old high school and our beloved principal. This year we realize that this class shall be the last one which will have been protected through four years of education by the old school. Certainly the familiar views of halls and rooms in the old building are sights which are close to our hearts. Is there ony one of us who does not recollect events of special and fond importance when we look about our school?

In all our recollections there is one familiar figure which we remember as associated with the best in our high school life. That person has been the impetuous influence behind all the fine things we have done. It is to that person that we owe everything which has made these last four years of such importance as they have been.

As fine as our teachers have been and as fondly as we hold the high school in our memories, there is still the one finer influence.

In our humbleness, with an appreciation which we can only show in this slight way, we dedicate this annual to our "Bobby," who leaves the school this year.



Sincerely

Albert J. Roberts

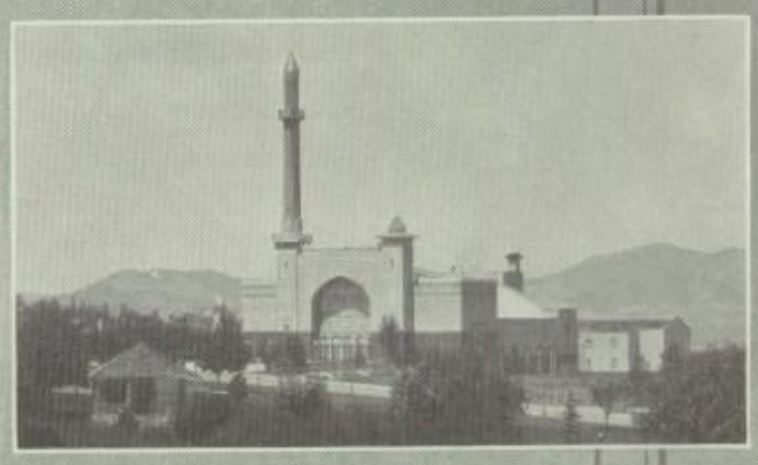
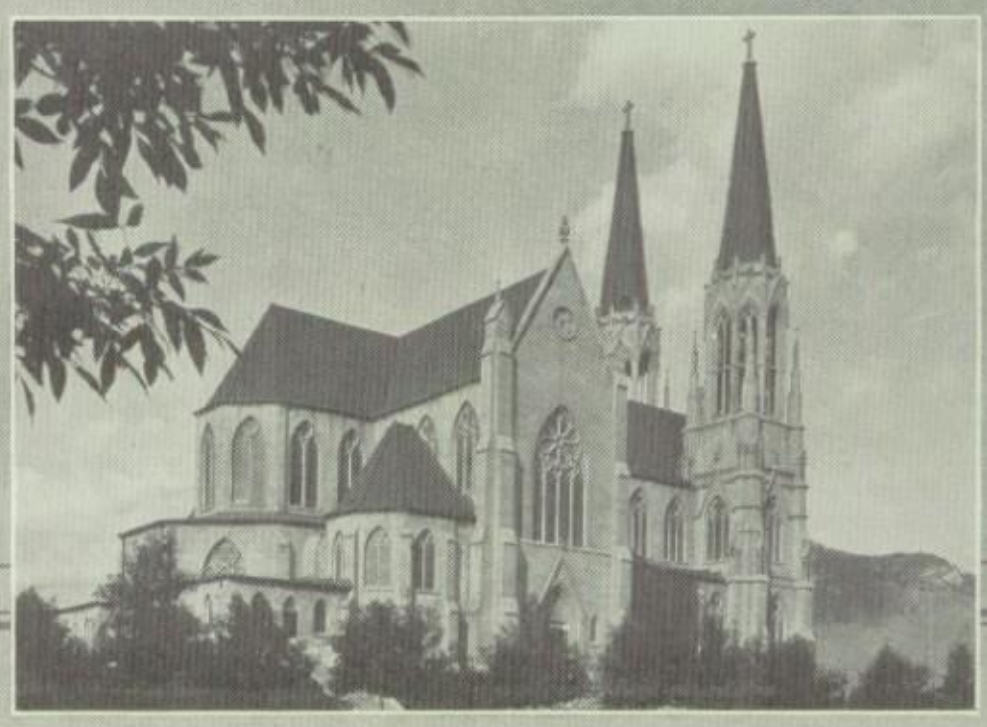
CAFE





Sonnet on Approaching Graduation

When I am brought to realize how near
To adult years I suddenly have come,
And when I look about me, see what some
Have found—success or failure—a quick tear,
A sudden chill is mine. I dread to hear
The summons: "Earthly work is just begun;
Come thou and do as those before have done;—"
I know I am afraid—of life, of fear!

But when I think of those who've dared to be
All that I've hoped; through labor found the key
To life; through courage came to what they are;
Then I am comforted. There is no bar
'Twixt Heaven and earth. How many hearts with me
Have been afraid, and then have seen a star?

Mr. Roberts' Message

Officers and Members of the Class of 1935:

When I first came to Helena, the "Nugget," the only "journalistic" activity at that time, was issued in pamphlet form. There was one regular number for each month. Later special editions were printed for Football, Thanksgiving, Easter, and Commencement.

In 1918 the Commencement number was made the school Annual and called the "Vigilante." It has been published every year since that time with the exception, unfortunately, of the year 1925.

Beginning with 1918 the "Nugget" was first printed in a newspaper form, and issued thereafter twice each month. It was intended to give the news of the school relatively on time. These two "journalistic" activities have always had my encouragement and support. I trust that they will be continued and improved under the new administration and for all time. There should be a room in the New Building called the Journalism room especially equipped for this work.

It is my great pleasure to extend many expressions of sincere praise to the Class of '35 for the preparation of this excellent book; also many good wishes to those who shall perform a similar service for the school and community in the years to come.

GOOD-BYE

Albert J. Roberts

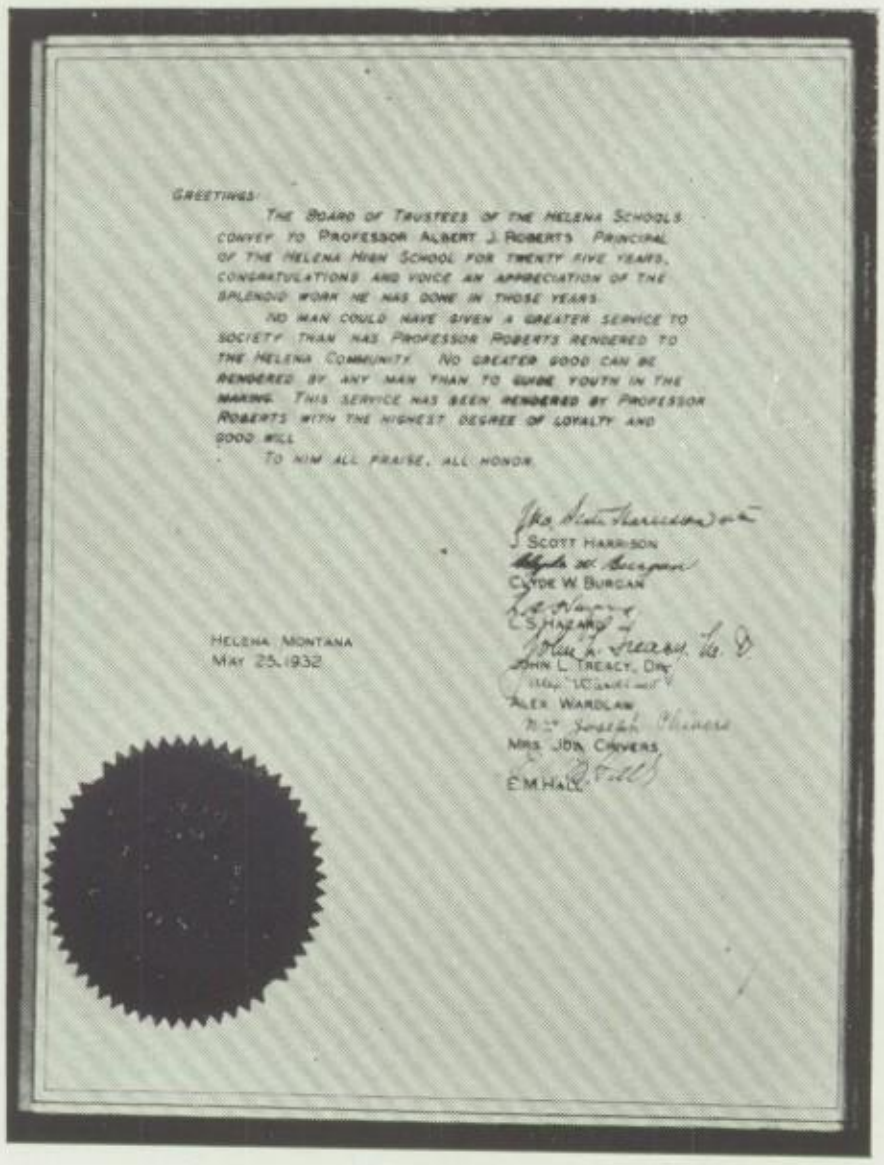
Principal

It is to Mr. Roberts that we owe all we have gained during our years in high school. With a sense of deep loss we realize that we are leaving him for the last time. Even greater is this loss when we know that Mr. Roberts retires from his duties as principal this year. We shall never be able to return and visit with him in the new school, as we should so much like to do. The Senior Class takes great honor in being the last class to graduate under Mr. Roberts.

Mr. Roberts, a familiar figure about the school and in his office, is very fond of outdoor life. This group of photographs shows him in his office, on a hunting trip and in front of the school.

During Mr. Roberts' term as principal of the Helena High School he has become recognized as one of the foremost educators in Montana and in the Northwest. He is known for his high ideals and developed culture throughout educational circles over this entire section of the country.

At a dinner honoring him on his silver anniversary as principal, the following document was presented to him in recognition of his fine work.



GREETINGS

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE HELENA SCHOOLS CONVEY TO PROFESSOR ALBERT J. ROBERTS PRINCIPAL OF THE HELENA HIGH SCHOOL FOR TWENTY FIVE YEARS, CONGRATULATIONS AND VOICE AN APPRECIATION OF THE SPLENDID WORK HE HAS DONE IN THOSE YEARS.

NO MAN COULD HAVE GIVEN A GREATER SERVICE TO SOCIETY THAN HAS PROFESSOR ROBERTS RENDERED TO THE HELENA COMMUNITY. NO GREATER GOOD CAN BE RENDERED BY ANY MAN THAN TO GUIDE YOUTH IN THE MAKING. THIS SERVICE HAS BEEN RENDERED BY PROFESSOR ROBERTS WITH THE HIGHEST DEGREE OF LOYALTY AND GOOD WILL.

TO HIM ALL PRAISE, ALL HONOR.

Mr. Evan's Message

Students of the Helena High School:

Please accept my sincere congratulations upon the privileges and the advantages you are to enjoy soon in a thoroughly modern and adequate high school home.

As you enter the new building next September, may you do so with a proper attitude of appreciation and an appropriate sense of responsibility; appreciation of what has been done for you and responsibility for maintaining conditions as you find them for the enjoyment and the benefit of those who are to follow you.

To the Seniors, the immediate advantages will, of course, be withheld. You may find satisfaction in the distinction of being the last class to be graduated from the old building and in joining with the rest of us in congratulating all future students who are to enjoy the new privileges and the new advantages.

With best wishes for you, one and all, I am

Most sincerely yours,

R. O. Evans,

Superintendent of Schools

Valedictory

Now that the time has come for us to say goodbye to High School and its associations, I find it very hard to do. The four years we have spent together in this old grey building have only the most pleasant memories connected with them. It is a difficult thing to break relationships of four years standing and turn to whatever unknown things the future has in store for us.

In a few short days we shall be graduates; the Class of 1935 will be the newest recruit in the ranks of Helena High School Alumni; and we shall go on individually to face the world. It is an occasion for rejoicing—we have achieved that which we have worked four years to obtain—but it also has a serious aspect. We shall never again be members of that group which entered high school four years ago as green freshmen. It is not unlikely that the entire group of us shall never meet again.

But while we must recognize the seriousness of our graduation, it is not on this note that I want to leave Helena High. Let us rather have one of assurance and confidence in our own future and that of our classmates. The members of the Class of 1935 are unusually talented in many ways. Let us make the most of our opportunities so that our class may be remembered, not only as the last class to graduate from the old high school but also as the one to which belonged so many people who made their mark in the world. We must live up to our motto, "Not only good, but good for something."

And now, as "farewell speaker" for the class, I say goodbye to the school, to "Bobby," to the teachers and to the other students with the assurance that the Class of 1935 will be heard from again in a way to make the school proud of us.

And in farewell let me say "vale"; the word the Romans used to say before starting on a long journey.

C. Jayne Tuttle.

Salutatory

In some respects the graduation exercises of the class of 1935 of the Helena High School will be more noteworthy than those of any other graduation programs, with the exception of the class of 1879—the first class to complete four years of high school work in Helena. We are the last to be sent from the old Helena High. We are writing the obituary of the old school. In retrospect the four years have gone on winged feet since we entered the classrooms the first time, very timid and much in awe of the "upper classmen." Now we are about to receive the coveted diplomas which we have won by four years of earnest effort, and the compact unit known as "The Senior Class of 1935" will, in a sense, be dissolved and each individual will have started another phase of the "Seven Ages of Man" enumerated by William Shakespeare. Some of us will continue our educations at institutions of higher learning, others will face the grimmer task of finding a place in the intricate economic world. In either event, the splendid training we have received, both scholastically and ethically, during the past four years will stand us in good stead.

These are changing times. Since we started our work as high school students there have been many revolutions in economic and social conditions and in the trend of thought. Never before has youth been so stressed and never before has the youth of the country been given such an opportunity to find his place in the scheme of things. In this respect the class of 1935 is particularly fortunate. Not all of us will make his shining mark but each one of us will be fortified by the splendid training and precept of our instructors and each of us will have a treasure of golden memories of our four years as students of "Old Helena High."

We will be the last class to receive diplomas signed by Principal A. J. Roberts and we particularly wish to express our appreciation of his guidance, kindly understanding and cooperation during the past four years. I know it is the wish of every one of us that when we have completed our work it can be said of us as it can be of him, "Well done, my good and faithful servant."

In conclusion, as we each go our separate ways, I sincerely hope that each of you will be successful in your various undertakings.

Class Poem

A FAREWELL TO THE OLD SCHOOL

Gayle N. Tiller, April 15, 1935.

PROLOGUE

This song must tell of the gracious past,
Of the things that perish and the things that last;
This song must speak of what has been,
And of things that can never be again;
This song must weep for a lonely hill,
For darkened windows, and rooms now still;
For the dust that gathers in hallway and stair,
And the memories that linger there.
This song must tell of two farewells;—
The story that every dark hall tells;
And another tale that we who go
And leave this much behind us know,
Of something we can never find again;
But wait—let the old school's dream begin:

(The Old Building Speaks)

Through all the day the pigeons sweep and wail
About my eaves, and their sad cries resound
From all my empty rooms; and when they're gone
The silence pours in, heavy, smothering, dead.
It was so different not so long ago
When every room was sure of busy hum,
When books and papers rustled; whisperings
And muffled laughter buzzed, and hurried pens
Scratched ceaselessly on lessons never done.
Even on holidays there was no real quiet;
I caught my breath and waited, half with hope
And half with dread, another noisy siege;
The dust had scarcely settled from the spring,
It seemed, when school began again each fall.

First days were always madder than the rest;
There were loud greetings, shouts, and noisy feet;
And even after bells had rung, small groups
Strolled aimlessly around from room to room.
The freshmen, hesitating, half afraid,
Stood lonesomely about, and often blushed
To hear some new-made upperclassman say,
"The freshmen sure get dumber every year."

It was not long before we settled down
To quiet monotony of work once more;
And then the football season came again
With posters, practice, and a rally now
And then. It seemed as though the assembly-room
Would almost burst sometimes, it was so full;
And when the leaders managed to succeed
In drawing out a cheer, the windows shook
And every pillar quivered with the sound.
Without the personal appearance of
Of course a football rally never was complete
The team, reluctantly, with faltering steps,
In crimson agony. A triumph of Extemporaneous oratory then
When an invitation to the coming game
Was given in twenty different ways and styles.

Long, sunny, snowless days stretched on into
The winter. Then the winds and sleet poured in
Across the snowbound hills, and slowly found
Their way in 'round the windows. Chilled, numbed hands
Gripped pencils tightly, or typed briskly on
Regardless of mistakes. The cheerful lull
That was the holidays came and was gone;
A hurried, busy week again proclaimed
Semester's end; another opening day;
And suddenly the spring's activities
Were fairly launched. With basketball behind
The school could turn to other things. The clubs
Met regularly; laughter, songs and shouts
Would often echo through the halls from rooms
Made brighter by the dark, still, spookiness
Of all the rest. 'Ere long the seniors found
They were a class; an undercurrent of
A thrilled excitement ran through routine days
And even underclassmen sensed the stir
Of Senior happenings. Contests were won
And lost; and music, art, and drama all
Brought their own plaudits with them in success.

As with all things, a quickening came with spring;
The Tile Floor was crowed with bright noise,
And lockers clanged, and voices rose and fell
With rushing feet. Who knows how many dates were made
And broken there; how many shoulders leaned
Against the pillars where the aftermath
Of all the flying squadrons that made white
The assembly floor and drove the teacher mad,
Sweet fickle romance, made it possible
To hold a giggling tete-a-tete where noise
Would make a locomotive blush for shame.
The office did a thriving business in
The permit trade, and every now and then
Some unforseeing "skipper" found his doom
Awaiting him in "Bobby's" face and words.

And then a direful epidemic swept
The ravaged school—spring fever had set in,
And teachers found their pupils staring off
In empty space with looks more vacant still
Than those they usually wore. But suddenly
A whisper trembled through the school, a cry
Of Vigilante! Thrilling plans and wild
Excitement; secret conversations; trucks
And horses; gowns and grease paint; "Bobby's" talks
Before the assembly with much pacing up
And down and sudden humor and a deep,
Inspiring seriousness. The final day—
And for a too-brief hour the past took shape
Again and lived and breathed a colorful
And well-planned pageantry of proud
And eager faithfulness to pioneer days.

Class President's Speech

Dear Fellow Students:

We are met here today in honor of the departing Senior class. At this fitting time it is my privilege to express on behalf of the Class of '35 our most sincere appreciation to those to whom we feel appreciation is due:

To our fathers and mothers who through their self-sacrifice and denial have made these four years possible, who have shared our triumphs and felt our sorrows.

To Mr. A. J. Roberts, the one man in the school we turned to when difficulties seemed unsurpassable.

To the teachers who have tried to understand us and guide us accordingly.

To the business men of Helena who through the generous co-operation have made our undertakings a success.

It is indeed with a heartfelt thanks than I express our deepest gratitude and hope that our future achievements will be a just reward for their sacrifices.

From here many of us will go on into institutions of higher learning but the majority of us will go out into the world to take up our duties as an American citizen and to rise or fall as the lessons we have learned in this building shall decree.

Class Will

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1935

To the faculty we extend our sincere thanks for guiding us through our six years of high school.

To the underclassmen we leave a brand new high school; personally we would rather be students of the old school.

Bob Fletcher leaves in search of a voice that won't blush when he talks to the girls.

Don Smith leaves his airflow line to Sam Roberts' all-steel body.

Jack Connor should leave a few sandwiches when he goes to a dance at the Warren school house.

George O'Connell leaves his flashy red hat to go with Rossie Goodman's silver slippers.

Nora Nickols leaves her rah-rah enthusiasm for Butte Hi to Butte Hi.

Curly Blumenthal leaves those lovely curly tresses to all those girls who insist on having fuzzy permanents.

Jean Langdorf leaves her repertoire of one song, "My Man," to Jack Chisholm.

Art Wilson leaves his ability to get good grades to anyone else who can copy out of the book.

Sumner Heidle leaves his ability to hold the English class spellbound while reading poetry, to Jack Veach.

Joe Geier leaves the tatoo on his arms to Harold Barnes.

Shirley Kelly and Charlotte Stafford leave their color schemes to the Commercial Lettering Department.

Walter Buhrer leaves one pair of dirty gray spats to Milt Coutu.

We leave to Gigolo John Schubert, Lesne Smootz's dancing technique.

Mary Callaway leaves her detachable eye lashes to someone who really needs them.

Elmer Peterson leaves the Kessler Brewery to Honest John Taylor and Al McGaffick.

We leave to Kenneth Floyd Jones our sympathy; who will inspire him now that Betty Schuyler is graduating?

Dorothea Casper leaves her gift of gab, her drag in the office and anything else she can spare to Lois Strandberg.

Jerry Archibald leaves with pleasure.

Bob Fromm leaves Butte's Red Rooster to next year's football fans.

Ed Radly leaves the Barbeque, otherwise known as the Greasy Spoon, to some of the up and coming Sophomores and Juniors.

Jack Salvail will please leave his crooning at home hereafter.

Jean Forgy leaves her false teeth to Marjory Locky just in case, hoop-de-d a warning to you lassies.

Mary Jane Anderson, who was vaccinated with a phonograph needle, leaves to compete in a bubble gum contest with Dorothy Kelley.

Guy DeLambert leaves his graceful proportions to Otto Krieg.

As long as Strong is going to college he figures he has nothing to leave—we figure that way too.

Class Prophecy

The following news items were taken from several leading newspapers throughout the country. A few schoolmates have gathered in the public library and are very interested—if not amazed to read of the whereabouts of their former school chums:

Well, look here! Bob Fletcher is organizing a hunting party at his Dude ranch. The famous duck hunter, Jack Salvail, who just arrived from Antartica, is to be one of the elite party. Helena Crayon accompanied him, and they were piloted from Miss Crayon's home by Dudley (Daredevil) Billit.

Write your troubles to D. May Casper, one who knows all, sees all, hears all and tells all. That's what Don Smith did; listen to this: Dear Auntie Casper: How can I regain Minna Winestine's affection for me? Ed Cottingham has her wrapped around his little finger and it bothers me almost to death. (Signed) Donnie.

Here's a good ad: Men, are you lonely? If so use Strong's fig liniment. It can work miracles. Walter Bueher is a marvelous specimen. Learn muscle technique.

Berlin (Associated Press): Bristol Bently, 4 times winner of a short wave loving cup, arrived here at 12:21 A. M. after having swum from Manhattan. Bently was in the water 3,000 hours.

"When all tired out and nervous, smoke a Camel," says Ada Carpenter, deep sea-fisher lady. "When I am below the surface I light a Camel; then I feel as light-headed as Cidney Munn, the pearl diver."

Guy deLambert has recently been appointed chief giraffe tooth brusher for Higby and Hopkins Famous Round the World Circus.

Ma-dam Galusha will make her opera debut this evening at the Picket Price Palace. She will render 79 comb solos and will be accompanied by Jean Etta Lager, famous pickle-ist.

Ladies: Do your clothes seem to bind, pull and gap? In other words, have a dress designed and made by Earl Merrit and his Thrifty Threaders.

Norah Nichols, the famous Parisian hair dressist, has just completed her spring plans for new hair do's. Her models of the choicest: Yvonne Picotte, Naomi Dove, and Carl Ortloff.

The marriage of Laurabelle Skinner, daughter of Mrs. Skinner, has been announced. She was wed to Lord Peter deGroot, of the famous Degroot and Degroot.

Maxine Crittenden has filed against Bill Whipps a breach of promise suit—it is rumored that Florence Evans is a shadow.

Jayne Tuttle and Verdean Buckl ıd are on the last lapse of the Scooter Marathon Race. It has been a Pole ,o Pole hop, skip and jump.

Gayle Tiller has just published a book of poems dedicated to Arthur Barnes commemorating in verse the eternal triangle of Lillian Shannon, Francis Morteau and John Kovich.

Dorothy Kelley, golf champion of the Free City of Danzig, has just been returned to her native country.

Jean Forgy and Joe Geier have sold "the ducks" and are now at the Hotel Bristol.

Herbert Watts, the noted Mahi Rajah Crystal gazer, predicts that Betty Stewart, Wampas Baby Star, will be Hitler's right-hand woman within a year.

It has been rumored that Eugene Leiberg, foreign ambassador to Kenwood, is serving his foreign despondents the nippy Loble Champaign.

Melan Aleksich ran a close second to Shirley Kelley in the election for Senator. The former proved more popular with the kiddies.

Officer Chase Patrick chases Chas. Lippert in search of a case of Mary Hein beer, but is lost in a fog.

Katherine Mergenthaler, wife of the underworld Scarface Sumner Heidel, has been kidnapped and is held for a 59-cent ransom. It is suspected that Lois Morgan, wife of J. P., is behind it all.

Bill Raney, the man on the flying trapeze, has stolen little Nellie Althea Schaffer from the poor but plucky non-giver upper Homer Phillips and has retreated to the Virgin Islands.

The girl with the Listerine smile, Margaret Mason, has accepted a contract with Rickman and Rudio studios.

Mary Dene Carson, Emma Louise Clarkson and Lucille Clinton have returned to Yale after having spent the holidays with their respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ziltch.

Elmer Peterson, better known as Tarzan, is wooing Tiger Woman Lenore Hoofman.

Dye Ogata has started a class in the perfection of perfect noodle eating.

Mary Jane Anderson, Bob Fromm and Mary Callaway are still inmates at Warm Springs as a result of trying to perfect the Class Prophecy of '35.

The law firm of Williams, Williams, Williams and Williams has elected Zudora, president; Josephine, vice-president, Jessie, vice-president, and Helen, vice-president.

Henry Fisk

To whom the credit of making Helena High one of the major contenders in interscholastic sports is due.

Henry this year took over the basketball team and placed us third in Big 14 standings.

Football

September 29, 1934

Helena 14 Anaconda 0

Touchdowns—Fryett 1, Strong 1. Point after touchdown—Schmidtz (rushing), Strong (place-kick).

October 6, 1934

Helena 26 Bozeman 0

Touchdowns—Strong 2, Fryett 1, Schmidtz 1. Point after touchdown—pass, Strong to Dolan. Strong returned punt 80 yards to touchdown.

October 13, 1934

Helena 19 Lewistown 7

Touchdowns—Strong 2, Fryett 1. Point after touchdown—pass, Strong to Dolan. Strong dashed 88 yards on intercepted pass to touchdown.

October 27, 1934

Helena 8 Butte 6

By defeating Butte, Helena had the chance to play Missoula for the Northern District Championship. A pass from Strong to Hanshaw gave Helena her score. This was a hard battle.

November 3, 1934

Helena 19 Great Falls 0

For the last eight years Helena has defeated Great Falls. Great Falls has never defeated Helena since Coach Fiske has been here.

Touchdowns—Fryett 2, Strong passed to Dolan 1. Point after touchdown—Strong.

November 10, 1934

Helena 40 Kalispell 6

Touchdowns—Strong 3, Fryett 2, Roberts 1. Point after touchdown —Strong 3 (placekicks), Fryett 1 (rushing).

November 17, 1934

Helena 19 Missoula 21

Touchdowns—Strong 2, Fryett 1. Point after touchdown—Strong (place-kick).

Kelly and Connor played well in the line. Fryett, Hoon, and Strong were noticeably good in the backfield.

November 29, 1934

Helena 7 John Rogers 14

Touchdowns—Fryett 1. Point after touchdown—Strong (place-kick).

On the official All-State Team are:

Strong—Halfback—First Team.
Fryett—Fullback—Second Team.
Connor—Guard—Third Team.
Archibald—Honorable mention.
Kelley—Honorable mention.

Boys' Basketball

Great Falls 19, Helena 18—Helena opened the season with a close game, DeLambert and McGaffick were the high point men.

Helena 29, Park 26—Our first conference was won and Helena promised to be a real threat last year.

Butte Central 33, Helena 32—St. Peter, 34, Helena 33—Helena 30, Anaconda 20—Helena went to Anaconda to play in the Winter Sports Carnival and won one conference game. Two non-conference games were lost.

Helena 37, Bozeman 27—Another conference won and many of our men were home with the measles.

Park 46, Helena 30—Our team was greatly weakened because of so many sick men.

Missoula 23, Helena 14—Helena's old rivals won again. Helena chalked up only one field goal in the last period.

Helena 30, Butte 26—Helena took the long traditional rivals. DeLambert scored 18 points.

Helena 32, Bozeman 11—Bozeman fell again before Helena.

Great Falls 40, Helena 17—Missoula 30, Helena 21—After defeating Whitefish, Helena lost the next two games. This gave her fifth place in the District Tournament.

Helena's conference standing was third best in three years. Because of this it was considered a successful season.

Girls' Basketball

For the first time in many years the girls won the "Y" basketball tournament. Under the able direction of Miss Mildred Noble the team had a smooth and clock-like action which was a pleasure to watch.

Games:

Helena vs. "Y" first team, 43-9.

Helena vs. Intermountain College, 38-28.

There will be several girls graduating this year: Evelyn Hillman, Eileen Dignan, Norah Nichols, guards; Jean Langdorf and Zudora Williams, forwards.

Those on the team are:

FIRST TEAM

Guards:

Evelyn Hillman
Eileen Dignan
Jane Snyder
Margaret Williams
Myrtle Archabald
Marion Majors

Forwards:

Evelyn Denny
Jean Langdorf
Zudora Williams
Maurice Stewart
Lillian Ferry

SECOND TEAM

Guards:

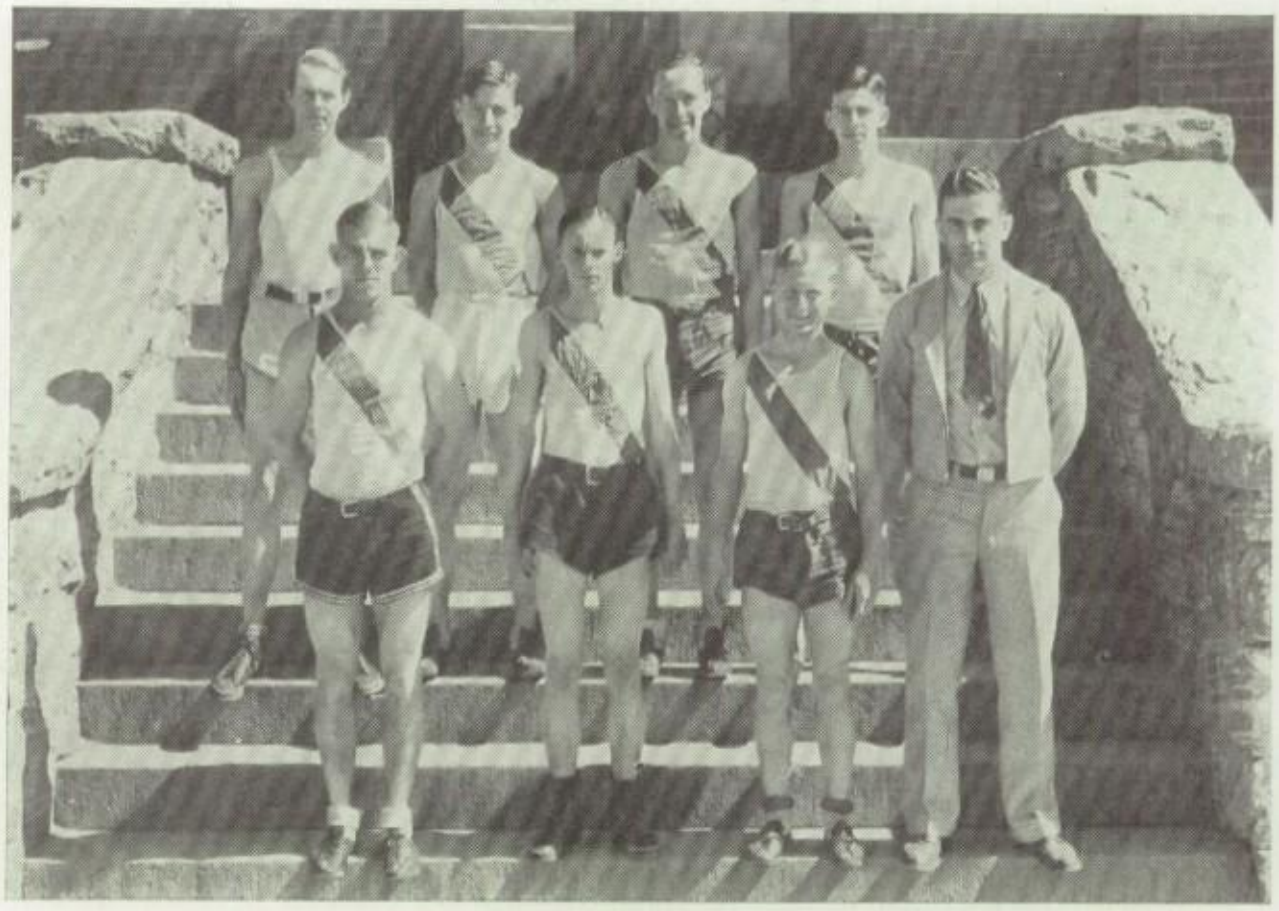
Delphine Merz
Jane Eby

Forwards:

Emmy Schwartzhans
Thirza Crosby
Judy Skinner
Nancy Kufeld



Track

At the beginning of the season several boys were out for the track team which is coached by Robert Westfall. All but three, however, dropped out before the annual meet with Missoula. The three boys who represented Helena in the meet were Hoon, Rickert, and Strong.

Tennis

The tennis tournament played last fall had many entries. The tournament was so arranged to have class tournaments and the winners of the classes play for the championship. Ernestine Annas defended and kept her title as champion which she has now held for two years.

The winners of the class tournaments were:

Senior.....Jean Langdorf
Junior .....Ernestine Annas
Sophomore.....Sarah Jean Barclay
Freshman .....Jan Schuyler

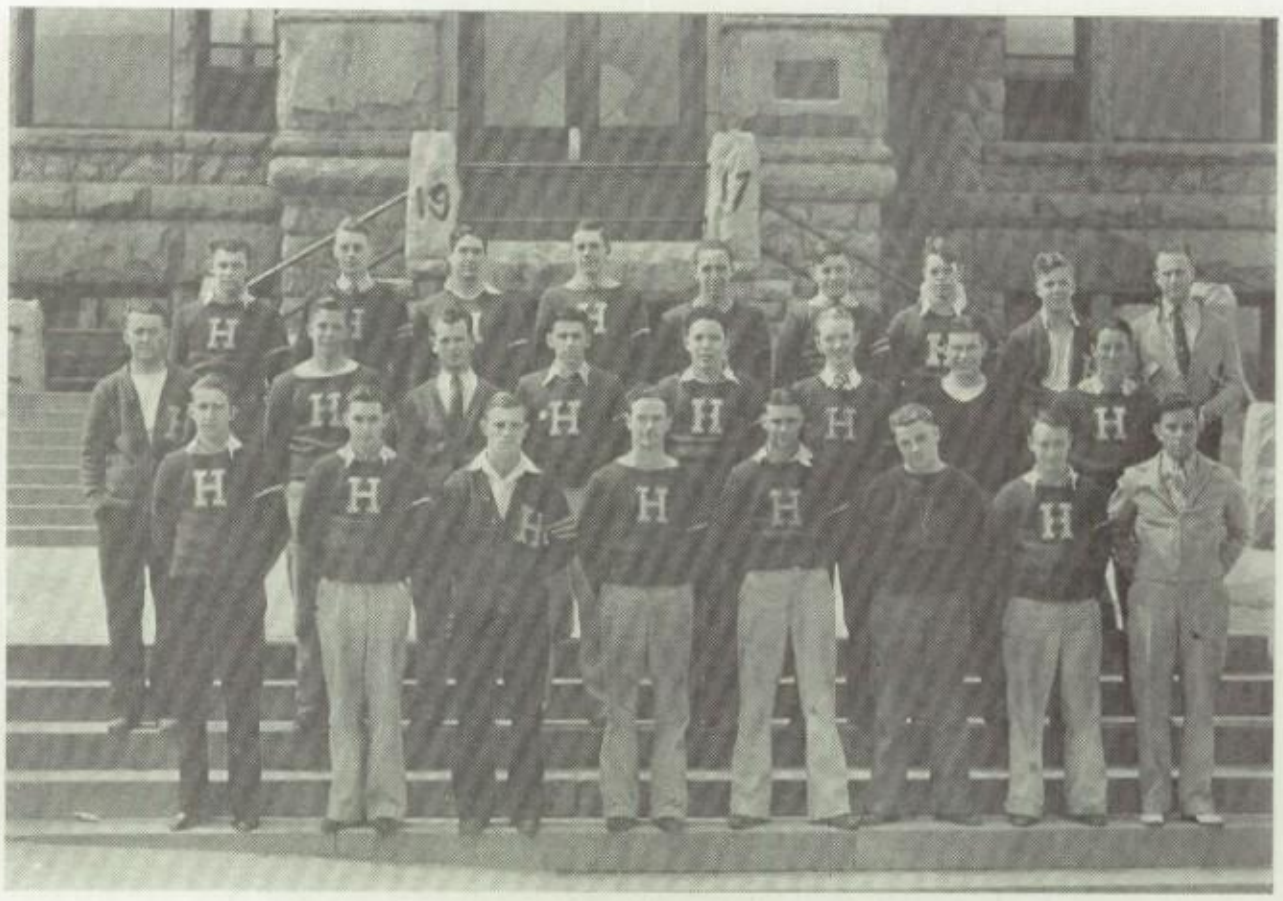
Activities



Boys' H Club

The "H" Club of Helena High represent the boys who have won their letter by athletic prowess. Each boy has taken part in the athletic activity that makes up our interscholastic sports. The club is composed of 24 members. This year many new members were taken in and were initiated at a matinee dance when their bathing beauty contest greatly pleased the crowd.

Jack Connor ..... President
Jerry Archibald ..... Vice-President
Morris Rudio ..... Secretary
Guy deLambert ..... Treasurer

Girls' H Club

The Girls "H" Club is an honorary athletic organization for girls. In order to belong one must be active in two or three sports. In this way they make their letter.

Margaret Mason is President, Evelyn Hillman is Vice-President, and Eileen Dignan is Secretary-Treasurer. This organization has only recently become active, but is now going ahead and will probably be a strong club in the near future.

Boys' Hi-Y Club

This club has carried on a very complete and successful program this year. The regular monthly dinners with programs were held in addition to weekly discussion and business meetings. For these dinners and meetings we feel deeply indebted to the Y.M.C.A. Board anf Staff and to them we wish to express our grateful appreciation for their help and cooperation. The rifle club work was continued. The rifle club members cleaned up the new rifle range after it had been moved to the old library building. The Hi-Y members sold Christmas trees and mistletoe at Christmas time. Some of the boys organized a good orchestra and not only entertained the club at the meetings but also played at numerous public gatherings.

The club aims to create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character throughout the school and community and to give service wherever possible. For example, this year some members helped the Y.M.C.A. by selling "Y" memberships. At another time other membes worked for the Y.M.C.A. selling and collecting tickets at the All-State basketball tournament. During the time of the Montana State Legislature's session the Hi-Y boys showed their stand on temperance by sending a petition to the capitol stating that they were in favor of a bill which would prohibit the sale of beer in the same establishments where dancing was permitted.

The officers of the club are: President, Rolland Breed; Vice-President, Jack Chisholm; Secretary, Sumner Heidel; Treasurer, Bob Ewing. The sponsor of the club is Mr. R. Dietmeier.

Girls' Hi-Y Club

The Girls' Hi-Y Club began the year's activities with the annual Hi-Y Mixer which was held November 2, 1934, in the Public Gymnasium. This dance is given every year to acquaint the Freshman and upper class girls. The building was decorated to represent a football field. During the year, nine luncheons were served at which programs were given and various talks given by noteworthy speakers. Anne Larsen, president of the organization in 1931-34, spoke on "Nursing as a Profession." Mrs. William Mayger gave a very interesting talk on conditions in China. Another speaker was Mrs. Blanche Tuttle of Fligelman's, who discussed up-to-date lingerie. Mrs. William L. Fitzsimmons gave interesting side-lights on the well-known women's college, Bryn Mawr. The annual banquet was held on the evening of May 1 at the Montana Club, and was enjoyed very much by those attending. The officers of the Girls' Hi-Y for 1934-35 were: President, Evelyn Hillman; Vice-President, Ernestine Annas; Secretaries, Jayne Tuttle and Lois Morgan; and Treasurer, Shirley Kelley.

Glee Clubs

The combined High School Glee Clubs gave their annual concert January 24, 1935, at the Consistory Temple. The concert was under the able direction of Miss Pauline Campion Keane, whose knowledge in the arts of music and direction has won for her many well deserved compliments. The Glee Club have sung for all public entertainments, including the laying of the cornerstone of the new High School.

Miss Keane will be another of the loved teachers who won't be back next year. This is certainly a disappointment to all her pupils and to the music lovers of Helena.

The Nugget

The 1934-1935 Nugget functioned this year with Miss Marjorie Stewart as sponsor, and was edited for the first semester by Bob Fromm and Dorothea Casper as Co-Editors. The paper was published this year on book paper rather than the old type of paper. A new policy of changing the staff in the mid-year was adopted. The new Co-Editors are Sam Roberts and Ernestine Annas who will serve in this capacity till January, 1936, along with their staff.

A pie sale under the supervision of Bob Fromm, Dorothea Casper, and Florence Evans was held to help the finances of the paper. The annual Nugget Banquet was held at the Montana Club this year and deemed a success.

Smocks' Club

Smocks' is an organization of those members of the drama classes who are particularly interested in producing, directing and acting plays. Those who do especially good work are made active members and they are allowed to wear a white smock with a dramatic emblem stenciled on the back.

Saved, Maisie, The Kelly Kid, Great Moments, and 'Twas the Night Before were some of the plays the members put on.

Senior Class Play

The Senior Class play under the direction of Miss Eaker was given at the Shrine Temple on Monday evening, June third. It was enjoyed very much by a capacity house.

The play was "Peg o' My Heart," the entertaining story of a little Irish girl who is sent to England to get a lady-like upbringing. Her trials and those of the family who can't possibly understand her were portrayed very successfully by the following sympathetic cast:

Betty Stewart as Peg
Jayne Tuttle as Mrs. Chichester
Jack Salvail as Brent
Carl Pfeiffer as Jerry
Bob Fletcher as Alaric
Jack Connor as Hawks
Hope Galusha as Ethel
Bob Fromm as Jarvis

The committees which helped to make this ever-popular play a success once more were:

Drama

Helena High's dramatic season opened December 7, with the presentation of three one-act plays.

The first play, "The Marriage Proposal," was a stylized farce concerning the trials of a Russian nobleman (Bob Fletcher) who is trying to propose to Natalya Stepanova (Shirley Kelly). Jack Connor, as Stepan Stepanovitch Chubukov, the father of Natalya, added flavor to this rapidly moving play.

"Play-Goers," the second play, was a comedy showing the efforts of a young English couple (Betty Stewart and Jack Hoon) who tried to give their servants some culture. The characterizations of the servants were very successfully portrayed by Marjorie Hay, Betty Schuyler, Violet Robinson, C. Jayne Tuttle, Minna Winestine, and Robert Fromm.

"Trifles," a deeply moving tragedy, was well received by an appreciative audience. The cast included Carl Pfeiffer, Wilbur Barker, Bill Schopfer, Jane Snyder, and Hope Galusha.

All of the players, the crews, and the people who helped to put the plays across are to be heartily congratulated on this production. The very able heads of the crews were Jack Salvail, stage; Dorothea Casper, properties; Emma Mason, costumes.

Latin Club

Those especially interested in Latin and receiving sufficiently high marks, are allowed to belong to the Latin Club, which was organized by Miss Amsel Greene in 1934. A number of meetings were held during 1934-1935, at which talks pertaining to Rome were given, various kinds of business discussed, and short programs presented by members of the club. It is the only club in the High School which is conducted on an honorary basis, membership being determined on the basis of grades only, except for the members of the Virgil class, who automatically belong. On May, 1935, the Latin Club proved its originality by giving a Hay-Ride which was enjoyed very much by all who attended. The officers, who are elected twice a year with one consul holding over for two terms each time, were: First Semester: Consuls, Lawrence Brewer and Philip Blumenthal; Censor, Ernestine Annas; Questor, David Bostwick; Aedile, Minna Winestine. Second Semester: Consuls, Philip Blumenthal and Robert Barnes; Censors, Ethel Mae Powell and Roland Gumprecht; Questor, David Bostwick; Aedile, Alice Colvin. The Latin Club has taken as its symbol the letters of the old Roman state, "S.P.Q.R." or "Senatus Populusque Romanus."

Chemistry Club

The Helena High Chemistry Club was organized in December: The officers are: President, Phil Blumenthal; vice-president, Art Wilson; secretary-treasurer, Don Smith. Mr. Dietmeier is the supervisor. Meetings are held on the second and fourth Thursday of the month. The members present interesting experiments and some very prominent Helena men have favored the club with talks.

Through the courtesy of the American Smelting and Refining Company, the club enjoyed a trip through their plant.

Home Economics Club

The Home Economics Club was organized in 1932 by Miss Esther Bowman and consists of the members of the Home Economics classes. While it was originally intended as a purely social organization, it has done a number of things such as preparing baskets for the needy, and mending the boys' football sweaters. It has given several luncheons, and also sent a member to Bozeman for High School Week this year.

The officers of the Home Economics Club are: President, Ada Carpenter; vice-president, June Cooper; secretary and treasurer, Vivien Carpenter, and reporter, Maybelle Lee.

Orchestra

This year's orchestra was one of the largest and best in the history of the school.

In October the members of the orchestra took part in the Montana All-State High School Orchestra at Butte. In this large but picked group of Montana's best high school musicians the Helena High representatives certainly showed their wonderful talents as individual musicians and carried off four first chairs and several other high places.

Three of the students took part in the gigantic Northwest Orchestra at Boise, Idaho.

This was considered one of the most successful years that the orchestra has had. This success was due to the expert direction and hard work of Professor H. P. Reinshagen.

JUNIOR PROMENADE
1934

The annual Junior Prom was held May 18 at the Shrine Temple. The Shrine was decorated in the manner of a Japanese garden. Dancing, to the music of Jimmy Smith's orchestra, was enjoyed.

SENIOR BANQUET

The Senior Banquet of the Class of "35" was held at the Placer Hotel, January 24. The tables were decorated in red and white, the school colors. A program was given after the dinner and then everyone went up to the gymnasium to dance to Mr. Kroboth's music.

NUGGET BANQUET

The members of the Nugget Staff held their banquet at the Montana Club, April 12. Talks were given by various members of the staff and by the faculty advisors. Dancing was enjoyed in the gymnasium to the music of Carroll College Collegians.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

The members of the football team and the faculty enjoyed an excellent banquet at the Montana Club. Jack Connor, Captain of the team of "34," presided as toastmaster. Mr. Roberts, members of the team, and other guests were called upon for speeches. Afterwards they attended the Marlow Theatre as guests of Mr. Connie Eckhardt.

HI-Y BANQUET

The Girls H-Y held their banquet at the Montana Club. The new officers were introduced and gave short talks. A program was followed by Community Singing.

DANCES

The Freshmen entertained their fellow students with a dance given at the gymnasium.

The Sophomore dance was enjoyed by a large crowd.

A series of matinee dances were given this spring and sponsored by the Nugget and Vigilante staffs. The music was furnished by the Carroll College Collegians and the dancing lasted from four to five-thirty.

Class Poem

When this great climax of the spring was past,
The school could catch its breath again, and as
The days unceasingly slipped on and on,
The pupils' and the teachers' thoughts would turn
To summer days—vacation days—and both
Were restless and impatient of their wait.
The seniors found they were almost afraid
To see Commencement Day approach so soon,
And all their talk was on Commencement things.
Then all at once another test week; then
Report cards and farewells, and year-books to
Be signed, and all in one last jumble of Goodby. And on the morrow, silence.

Gone
The footsteps and the laughter that have made
My stairs grow worn, and my halls grow dim. The new
Is waiting and the old must stand aside,
But not without a sadness and regret
That those who spent their youthful hours beneath
My roof must now be forced to say goodby
To all I've meant to them, and they to me.

EPILOGUE

Be content, old school; your part is done;
Your lessons finished, your races run.
No more of laughter, of worry, of pain,—
Go back to the wind and the earth again!
To us who go from you today
You mean something young, and sweet, and gay,
That we must leave behind us, not
To find again, nor to be sought
But as a memory. We go
From you to something that we know
Is greater. Some we must forget
Of the things we knew with you, and yet,
Through all the years, to us you'll be
A memorial,—and a memory.

John Routzahn and Alta Cramer have a new milking process which perfects the milking of bulls and steers.

A bubbleless bubble dance has been originated by Alberta Dance.

Sam Begovich was awarded the Roland Breed medal for goatee growing, his being the longest and the blackest in captivity.

Geneva Reindle and two other boys, Jack Connor and Dick Crosby, are doing an adagio act at the Sylvia Strand. (berg theatre).

Ann O'Connel is endorsing Lady Esther Smith Creams and is being paid the fabulous sum of $25,000,000 per sitting.

Glenda Spaulding, the all-round athlete, is using her own goods, tennis rackets, golf balls, etc., so they must be good.

Emma Mason Jars are selling at a new low price this week.

Ray Wine, author of "Wine, Women and Smootz," the universal song hit, is being featured by Harriet Hagler, the unique Tiny Tim of Radio Land.

Dorothy Manley is getting manlier and manlier every day, according to latest research.

Highway Patrolman Mark Hopkins arrested Evelyn Hillman and Bill Schopfer for over-parking on the Butte Highway.

Jean Sheriff, in her new Turkish Towel Ensemble, was seen posing for the Sultan.

Carl Pfeiffer, the cracked surgeon, is using Eileen Dignan, Mae Eathorne, Mildred Davis, Marion Potter, and Violet Robinson as his specimens in perfecting the theory of women's mentality being greater than men's.

Violet Albright was seen airing her Chow prize winning puddles on 5th avenue.

Charlotte Bowman has been appointed head hostess at the Drake.

Edith Bracket is employed by Senator Albertson, Red from Montana.

Betty Schuyler, the famous antique collector, has sold her stock and is traveling with Galligan and Gage, Salvation Army Evangelists.

Jerry Archibald, better known as J. Archie Ette, has manicured the celebrities Kathleen Merrill and Thelma Sime's toenails so short that they can't walk.

Francis Odion is getting her A.B., M.D., and other degrees at Carroll College. She is now a graduate nurse.

Fred Orton was seen playing a zither at mid-day beneath a hall tree and was taken immediately into custody. You can fool some of the people some of the time—and so on.

Bob MacDonald, alias Percy Doe, is the new manager of Hotel Templeton.

Stephanie Russ, noted female russler, one who fights, or one who gathers lip rouge while she may, russtles in tafetta.

Caroline Staringer was fined for operating a free taxi between East Helena and the Cross-roads, because Phil Blumenthal was trying to cross roads at the cross-roads and stuff.

Dorothy Maxwell is under observation after pleading guilty of selling drugs to Raymond Lay.

Vera Long and Ben Smith, income tax evaders, are now at the mercy of Judge Terrence Johnson.

Marie Connolly, prose writer for Esquire, had lunch with Mrs. Roosevelt last week. They were accompanied by Gordy Christiansen and George O'Connell.

Lawrence Brewer, head of W. F. Woolworth and Co., just eloped with Marjory Hay. They are honeymooning in the Bad Lands.

Mabel Bowman, flash reporter, told Anna Harold the answer. Just Lovem and Leavem and watch 'em come back.

Margaret Fiske has been having trouble with her feet because of overstudy. Let this be a lesson to you undergraduates.

Ruth Kemp, June Kranich, and Dela Keck, the K sisters, are singing close harmony with Doris Jones' all-women orchestra.

Phyiis Hooper has been wearing hoop skirts and has started quite a fashion in Siam.

Virginia Vantura is running a close second with Jean Wardlaw for the all-American Swimming title. May the strong-est win.

Elizabeth Vargo, a history teacher at Fargo, has been stressing the embargo act.

A Gesture of Good-Will

This book by intent and realization is a record of student life, published primarily for the enjoyment of the young men and women who graduate from Helena High School in 1935. By coincidence it is a swan song to the old stone edifice that enfolds the memories of many days. By right it is a tribute to Albert J. Roberts, richly beloved man, who has directed the destinies of two generations of young people toward higher attainments.

It pleases us to assist in the making of this record.
